DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(e) the invention was described in (1) an application for patent, published under section 122(b), by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent or (2) a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a) shall have the effects for purposes of this subsection of an application filed in the United States only if the international application designated the United States and was published under Article 21(2) of such treaty in the English language.

Claims 1,11,16,23 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by Faccin et al(US 6,879,690).

Claim 1: Faccin disclose AAA server for authenticating a user in (fig.2 and col.4,lines 57-60). Faccin disclose authorizing a service for the user when the user accesses the network in (fig.5). Faccin disclose AAA server identifier being usable to route queries containing the AAA server identifier to the AAA server in (col.5,lines 1-12). Faccin disclose generating a random session key that is opaque,unpredictable and not simultaneously re-usable in (col.8,lines 46-59).

Claims 11,16: Faccin disclose assigning a realm identifier to each of the plurality of AAA servers and creating a master session in a given AAA server in (col.5,lines 1-25;col.6,lines 12-22). Faccin disclose within the given AAA server for generating a master session identity that includes a session reference and the realm identifier assigned to the given AAA server and within the network for routing queries based on the master session identity to the given AAA server in (fig.4 and col.8,lines 40-59).

Claim 23: Faccin disclose randomly generating in each of the plurality of AAA servers, a fixed-length realm identifier that uniquely identifies each generating AAA server and creating master session in a given AAA server in (col.8,lines 51-59).Faccin disclose generating by the given AAA server, a master session identity that includes a session reference and the realm identifier that identifies the given AAA server and routing queries containing the master session identity through the network to the given AAA server in (fig.1 and col.8, lines 42-59).

Allowable Subject Matter

Claims 2-10, 12-15, 17-22 are objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.
